ARUNACHAL PRADESH

❑ Butterfly 'Neptis philyra' sighted for the first time in India:

- A butterfly Neptis philyra has been sighted for the first time in the country in Tale Valley sanctuary in Arunachal Pradesh, gladdening butterfly enthusiasts.
- It was sighted last year at Pange.
- The butterfly is also known as Long-streak Sailo.
- The sighting has been published in the Tropical Lepidoptera Research Journal.
- Atanu Bose, a butterfly lover, was sure that the butterfly Neptis philyra he saw was a new one to India.
- Bose later told his colleagues Mahesh Baruah (Bongaigaon), Abhishek Dutta Choudhury (Bongaigaon), and Anitava Roy (West Bengal), about the new butterfly which he stumbled upon.
- This butterfly was first described by M. Ménétriés in 1859 from Russia.
- This species has been found in East Asia, including eastern Siberia, Korea, Japan, Taiwan, China, Tibet, Yunnan, and Vietnam.

MANIPUR

□ UK commemorates 80th anniv of Manipur 's Kanglatongbi battle:

- The 80th anniversary commemoration of the Battle of Kanglatongbi, revered as one of the most intense conflicts of World War II, paid homage to the bravery of 105 British and Indian soldiers who valiantly defended their post on the night of April 6th/7th, 1944.
- Set against the backdrop of Manipur under British rule, the Kanglatongbi battleground witnessed fierce fighting during the Burma Campaign.
- The Lion Box at Kanglatongbi emerged as a pivotal site where British and Indian troops halted the Japanese advance into India, marking a crucial turning point in the broader Imphal Campaign.
- Traditionally, the observance of the 80th anniversary would have occurred at the Kanglatongbi battle site, graced by a memorial honoring the fallen.
- However, due to ongoing ethnic unrest in Manipur since May 3, 2023, this year's commemoration took place for the first time at the Burma Star Memorial at the National Memorial Arboretum (NMA) in the UK on April 7, 2024, at 1 pm BST.
